Welcome to New CFPA Assistant Director Bob Narus

In July, CFPA welcomed our new assistant director, Bob Narus, who is actually a very old friend of the Coalition. Bob attended some of our earliest meetings planning the Nuclear Freeze campaign in the early 1980s. He “re-enlisted” in 2006 because, as he puts it, “Thinking about how my tax dollars were being used in the world just made me ill.”

Bob has spent his career as a journalist and policy analyst. He was a member of the State House press corps and later covered environmental issues in New Jersey for The New York Times. He also served as the Executive Director of the National Housing Institute and the Research Director of the Center for Analysis of Public Issues in Princeton. Besides working for CFPA, he is a consulting to the Grant Results Reporting Unit of The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. He has a masters degree in public affairs from Princeton University’s Woodrow Wilson School.

Most weekdays, Bob is reachable at the CFPA office between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. or by e-mail at bnarus@peacecoalition.org.

An Iliad: Performance followed by Discussion
Sunday, November 7, 2:00 p.m.
McCarter Theatre
91 University Place, Princeton, NJ

The Iliad is Homer's epic about the 10th year of a war, it's original purpose largely forgotten, between a band of squabbling warlords and a wealthy, cultured city-state. Lisa Peterson and Denis O'Hare have adapted the work for the stage. McCarter Theatre in Princeton is presenting the drama this fall, starring Stephen Spinella.

CFPA has reserved a block of tickets for the 2:00 p.m. performance on Sunday, November 7. We are planning a discussion following the performance, available exclusively through CFPA. The panel discussion will include:

- Poet Paul Muldoon, Chair of the Peter B. Lewis Center for the Arts at Princeton University
- Lynne Fagles, wife of the late Robert Fagles, whose widely praised translation of the Iliad serves as the basis of the stage adaptation
- Stephen Spinella, the actor

Tickets are $75 per person for the performance and discussion and $25 for just the discussion (if you already have tickets to the performance). Use the coupon below to order tickets, or use our event page at www.peacecoalition.org. Please note that according to IRS regulations, payments for this event are not tax deductible.
